FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BIGGEST PEP RALLY IN USF HISTORY

WHO: University of South Florida Athletics and Homecoming will be hosting the biggest pep rally USF has ever held. It will be an all day even with an array of activities to boost spirit, moral and energy on all campuses. The event will be held at the USF Tampa campus only. Invites to all outer lying campuses is highly recommended

WHAT: Homecoming and Athletics have planned events throughout the day, which include:

- Dunk tanks
- Student organization showcase
- Skills Challenge
- Most "Bull-istic" fan
- USF Football Trivia
- Mechanical Bull rides
- "Press Conference simulator"
- USF Bulls player "meet-n-greet"

As an added bonus, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers: Joshua Johnson, Stylez White, Barrett Ruud and Ronde Barber will make an appearance at the event. Fans will have an opportunity to interact with their favorite USF Bulls and Buccaneers players. All events are free and are open to all USF students.

WHEN: Friday, Nov. 20, 2009
10am – 6pm

WHERE: USF Sun Dome
4202 E. Fowler Avenue
Tampa, Fla. 33620

WHY: To go along with the homecoming theme, "Bull-istic," USF wants to create an event filled with positive energy for the USF Bulls and Homecoming. It also incorporates an avenue for student involvement on campus. USF will be battling Louisville Cardinals for the top spot in the Big East Conference, so this even will be a benchmark in USF football history. Athletics and Homecoming believe that this event will create an opportunity for students to show their spirit and pride, as well as, give our athletes an opportunity to display their commitment and intent to win to their loyal fans.

PHOTO: Media will have special access during the event. Photo opportunities will be from 12pm-4pm. Both USF and Buccaneers players will be available for interviews, photos and video coverage. Field interviews and coverage will be allowed throughout the entire event.
